- 1. Formation of the 1 Seaplane Regiment of the Yugoslav Military Air Force with headquarters in Divulje, near Split, has now been completed. Although the flight and ground personnel are drawn from naval units, the regiment is under the jurisdiction of the Yugoslav Military Air Force Command and not the Yugoslav Naval Command. The units of the regiment are deployed as follows:
  - a. 1 Squadron: at Vodice, near Sibenik. It has six planes.
  - 2 Squadron: at Kumbor. It has four planes.
  - 3 Squadron: at Divulje. It has eight planes.
- The 18 seaplanes of the regiment were constructed in Yugoslavia, and are called "Aero-2H". A school for training seaplane pilots is at present located in Divulje.
- 3. The seaplane base at Divulje has been in existence since before World War II. Its facilities were repaired and modernized in 1949. Of the two hangars at the base, one houses planes and the other is used for the installation and repair of engines.
